2. NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF MENTAL HEALTH IS SEEKING POST DOCTORAL ASSOCIATES

The Juniper Gardens Children' Project/University of Kansas was awarded a Post-Doctoral Leadership Training Grant funded by the Office of Special Education Programs (OSEP). The aim of this project is to reduce the shortage in both minority and non-minority special education research leaders skilled in the education and treatment of culturally and linguistically diverse children and families. This project offers Post-doctoral Associates one year stipend for work at the University's Juniper Gardens Children' Project (JGCP) in Kansas City, Kansas. JGCP is an award winning community-based research center with funded research projects in the disciplines of early childhood, behavior disorders, mental retardation, multicultural special education, ESL and ELL, professional development, and reading. KU's Department of Special Education is consistently rated at the top in the Nation. The Scientist, a life sciences trade magazine, recently ranked KU in the top 10 as one of the best work places as surveyed by Post-doctoral Associates nationwide.
