

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF RESEARCH
PUBLIC/PRIVATE VENTURES
Philadelphia, PA

Public/Private Ventures (P/PV) is a national leader in creating and strengthening programs that improve lives in low-income communities. Founded in 1978, this nonpartisan, 501(c)(3) non-profit tackles challenges like unemployment, crime, poor health and low educational achievement. With offices in New York, Philadelphia, PA and Oakland, CA, P/PV is comprised of research, policy and program development experts who specialize in education, unemployment, prisoner reentry, juvenile justice, public health and more. They seek-out and design innovative programs, rigorously tests and promotes those that are proven to work. P/PV researchers bring doctoral-level expertise to the evaluation of all their programs and initiatives that informs local, state and national policy making while its longstanding ties to the philanthropic sector promote the broad scale momentum required to advance social change.

Reporting to the President, the Executive Vice President (EVP) for Research is a member of the organization's senior leadership team. The EVP will be responsible for promoting P/PV's engagement with policy issues at the state and national level, and increasing the organization's visibility with other leaders in the field as well as their many affiliates, external constituents, and supporters. The successful candidate will have a doctoral degree in the social sciences or a demonstrated equivalent. S/he will possess at least 10 years experience leading and managing a research team in areas consistent with P/PV's mission and published a body of work that is nationally visible and well respected by the social research and policy communities.
