

POSITION TITLE: Global and Community Health—Assistant/Associate Professor
EMPLOYER: George Mason University
LOCATION (City, State): Fairfax, VA
WEBSITE: <http://jobs.gmu.edu>

JOB DESCRIPTION

The George Mason University, Department of Global and Community Health within the College of Health and Human Services invites applications for a tenure-track Assistant/Associate Professor in Global Health to begin August, 2012.

Successful candidates will conduct independent and collaborative research, mentor students, and teach courses in the undergraduate and graduate programs. Programs in the Department of Global and Community Health include an MPH (with concentrations in Epidemiology and Global and Community Health), an M.S. in Global Health, an M.S. in Epidemiology/Biostatistics, and a B.S. in Community Health. We also expect to have Ph.D. programs up and running in the next five years.

A public health-related doctoral degree is required for the position. An MPH in any field along with the doctoral degree is preferred. Successful candidates will have demonstrated expertise in, or potential for, providing high-quality teaching and conducting an active research program. All fields of expertise in global health will be considered, but candidates with expertise in health promotion, health education or community health are particularly encouraged to apply.

George Mason University is an equal opportunity employer. The university is dedicated to the goal of building a culturally diverse faculty and staff. Women and minority candidates are particularly encouraged to apply.

For full consideration, applicants must apply for position number F9557z at <http://jobs.gmu.edu/>; complete and submit the online faculty application; and upload a cover letter, resume, and list of three professional references with contact information. Review of the applications will begin January 2012, and will continue until the position is filled. EOE
